Approved For Release 2007/05/25 : CIA-RDP80-00810A004900290005-5

CI ASSIFICATION_SECR
COUNTRY Austria	REPORT
TOPIC Military Information from Apatlon
VCD-0F-80 CMRCTHCQCCCCTTTOW confiner CMF CQCTTTC. No Accordance for the Confiner Confiner Confiner Confiner CMF CQCTTC.
EVALUATION PLACE	ABTAINED
DATE OF CONTENT
DATE OBTAINED	DATE PREPARED24 August 1954
REFERENCES
PAGES ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	The second of th
REMARKS
·
environment of the property of the control of the c	CENTRAL PROCESSION AND THE SECURIOR STATE AND ACCOUNT OF THE SECURIOR STAT
CT-SSR-073500000 Ventilot (Macademorphicage product Productional or and an about the standard complete and an about the s	h-delatingo propinsos processis (alternativa processis processis delatinda planes delatina delatina del del processione del pr
L	· ·
1. Between 2200 and 2230 on 18 July 1954, a large column of medium AA guns entered Camp Apetlon (P 48/X 74). On 20 July, a column of light AA guns, including trucks towing a 37-mm AA gun, passed through Apetlon. The drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. 2. Vehicular traffic between Camp Apetlon and Apetlon on 16 and 18 July included trucks each occupied by 10 soldiers. and van like truck two trucks, each towing a medium AA gun abordered black epaulets. All soldiers observed were red-bordered black epaulets.
3. On 20 July webicles driving to Camp Apetlon included trucks occupied by 20 soldiers van-like truck and truck towing a medium As gun. All soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. Comment. 23d AAA Div, AAA units of the 13th Gds Mech Div, and air force AAA units were stationed at the Apetlon AAA Range during the middle of July 1954.

NODEX -

CLASSIFICATION SECRET